SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given of the following hearing of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission.

Name: Carolyn Bartholomew, Chairman of the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission.

The Commission is mandated by Congress to investigate, assess, evaluate, and report to Congress annually on ``the national security implications and impact of the bilateral trade and economic relationship between the United States and the People's Republic of China.'' The July 12-13 hearing is being conducted to examine the impact of China's proliferation practices on U.S. national security, China's compliance with its own nonproliferation laws and regulations and international nonproliferation norms, the development of an indigenous defense industrial capacity in China, and the impact of trade practices and manufacturing in China on the U.S. defense industrial base.

The July 12-13 hearing on ``China's Proliferation and the Impact of Trade Policy on Defense Industries in the United States and China'' will be co-chaired by Commissioners Peter Brookes, Mark Esper, William Reinsch, and Michael Wessel.
